UNIT 2: Checkpoint English, Year 8 Myself and Others

Term 3:

Recommended Prior Knowledge: Checkpoint English Year 7, The Senses; Checkpoint English Year 8, Terms 1 and 2.

Context: The scheme of work uses a topic based structure to develop students' abilities to use language effectively to communicate in speech and writing and to respond with understanding and insight to a wide range of texts. The general topic lining the Year 8 activities is 'Myself and Others'.

Outline: Activities cover the following skills: seaking appropriately for performance; discussing, debating and persuading; reading for explicit and implicit meaning; writing to describe, persuade, inform and analyse; recognise the style and format of newspapers, magazine articles, personal and formal letters, leaflets, reviews; notes and summaries; recognition of the term irony; awareness of punctuation to clarify meaning.

Either as a whole class activity or in groups discuss the concept of 'myself' in relation to friends. How important is friendship? How does it change and alter with time? Can it lead to negative and positive behaviour? What qualities or character traits make a good friend?
Get students to prepare and give a short talk on a friend they have or have had in the past or write a poem about a friend and read/perform the poem.  Introduce the idea of 'myself ' in relation to leisure time.  In pairs share ideas and make notes about favourite places and best and worst holidays. Use the notes and ideas to write a leaflet advertising a holiday which would appeal to your partner. Use the leaflet and take it in turns to act the role of a travel agent and try to 'sell' your holiday.
	discuss the concept of 'myself' in relation to friends. How important is friendship? How does it change and alter with time? Can it lead to negative and positive behaviour? What qualities or character traits make a good friend?  Get students to prepare and give a short talk on a friend they have or have had in the past or write a poem about a friend and read/perform the poem.  Introduce the idea of 'myself' in relation to leisure time.  In pairs share ideas and make notes about favourite places and best and worst holidays. Use the notes and ideas to write a leaflet advertising a holiday which would appeal to your partner. Use the leaflet and take it in turns to act the role of a the poem Ozymandias by Shelley. What can they see in the poem? What do they think the poem is Recognise implied meaning, such as the about? inference of character or the meaning Introduce and discuss the idea of irony and how contained in an images. the poem is ironic. Learn a range of vocabulary appropriate to Use the words and phrases in Resources (1) to their needs. Learn the use of irony. help develop a vocabulary list to write a paragraph describing a ruin in a deserted place. As a class or group activity discuss how the vast trunkless legs of stone, boundless, no sound descriptive paragraph might be adapted to an and no movement, barren scene. Shattered visage, bare, colossal wreck, lone, wide expanse. opening for a story. Develop the idea of story openings.(2) huge arch, sense of loneliness Discuss how technology has changed our view of Reading between the Lines, Fiction and Poetry -Sue Bonnett - Letts Educational -2001 ISBN travelling. Read extracts from information texts which Recognise explicit meaning, select, collate and 1840855762 p.10 – 38. summarise facts and ideas, using their own describe methods and forms of travelling. words where appropriate to demonstrate Remind or introduce the term summary. understanding. Summarise one of the reading extracts (3) Survey: What are your interests/hobbies? How much time do you spend on each of them? Why Introduce idea of personal interests and use of do you enjoy what you do? Are you a beginner, an leisure time. Organise a class survey. See expert or in between? Participate in speaking and listening activities Resources (3) Present findings with graphs and a in order to discuss and prepare assignments. written report highlighting the most interesting Write for a variety of purposes, such as to things discovered. inform, explore and analyse as a report. As a follow up to the survey on personal interests, organise a debate: computer games and TV are a Speak, discuss, argue and persuade in a waste of time and are no good for your social life. debate. (4)Unit 7 Checkpoint English 1 Read some reviews of films and books in Letter Examples newspapers and magazines.

Write a review of a favourite TV programme` film Read magazines and newspapers. Hi Dude. or book.(4) Just to let you know I will be looking super cool when I see you on Saturday. I have just bought a T-shirt that really matches my teeth -Remind students of the differences in style and yeh like green. O.K. so you rate all three Lord of format of personal and formal letter writing, see the Rings films but I think the third one is way better than the other two. Gollum is definitely my Write reviews and personal letters. Resources (5) How might the examples be improved and developed considering audience favourite character. I am impressed to hear you Use full stops, capital letters, commas and and purpose? Discuss tone and appropriate are reading the book. It's too heavy for me even to question marks to make meaning clear, and vocabulary. How might punctuation help clarify Looking forward to meeting up again – it's been show awareness of other forms of punctuation. meaning? Set task of writing a personal letter to a friend telling them about something they have just ages. Your sister tells me you have put on weight purchased which they are really pleased with, e.g. so lay off the burgers. Go healthy - nibble carrots CD, computer game, new book, new clothes, etc. but order a pizza for me. See you Tom Apartment 105B Ramses Building Main Road Victoria 12 March 2005 The Manager Wild Wear High Street Victoria Dear Sir, I recently purchased a T-shirt from your shop. I wore it once and the sleeve came unstitched. When I returned the garment for a replacement or a refund, I was told by the assistant that this was not shop policy. I feel this policy should be clearly indicated in the shop or on the garments so the consumers are aware of it. Yours faithfully Thomas Fuller

--	---